Types of Sleeper Sofas

Pull-Out sleeper sofa with electric pump air mattress

The seat cushions are removed and the bed is manually pulled out of the base of the sofa. A quiet air pump inflates and deflates the air mattress.

Manual Fold-Down sleeper sofa

The base of the sofa is manually lifted up and out, lowering the sofa back to form a bed with the sofa cushions used as a mattress.

Electric Fold-Down sleeper sofa

The touch of one button causes the base of the sofa to lifted up and out, lowering the sofa back to form a bed. The sofa cushions used as a mattress.

Fully custom electric sleeper sofas

While it can be said that each sofa we build is custom designed and fit per customer, there are still requests that give us a chance to be creative. Shown here is a table that sinks down while two extra long sofas lift and fold out to form a California King sized bed. All movements of the table and sofas happen in sequence after the touch of one button.
